2. The Postal Service insures "nonnegotiable documents" (as defined by postal industry regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents up to $100 per mailpiece for document reconstruction, subject to additional limitations for multiple pieces lost or damaged in a single mailpiece. Document reconstruction insurance provides reimbursement for the reconstructable costs incurred in reconstructing duplicates of nonnegotiable documents mailed. Document reconstruction insurance coverage above $100 per mailpiece is not available. The mailer should not attempt to purchase additional document insurance, because additional document insurance is void.
4. The Postal Service insures "negotiable items" (defined by postal regulations as items that can be converted to cash without forgery, currency, or bullion up to a maximum of $15 per mailpiece).
5. The Postal Service does not provide coverage for consequential losses due to loss, damage, or delay of Priority Mail Express items or for concealed damage, spoilage of perishable items, and articles improperly packaged or too fragile to withstand normal handling in the mail. Coverage, terms, and limitations are subject to change. For additional limitations and terms of coverage, consult the DMM, which is available at ps.cdn.dmm.com.

Indemnity Claims (Loss, Damaged or Missing Contents): Either the mailer or the addressee may file an indemnity claim for loss, damaged or missing contents. The claimant may submit the claim online at usps.com, or by mail; for more information see Publication 122, Domestic Claims, Customer Reference Guide. The timeframes for claims are as follows: claims for loss—no sooner than 7 days but no later than 60 days after the date of mailing; claims for damage or missing contents—immediately but no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Retain the original USPS retail receipt or electronic receipt for claims purposes. For claims involving damage or missing contents, also retain the article, container, and packaging for Postal Service inspection when requested.

Refund of Postage and Fees (Claimed Performance): If delivery of a Priority Mail Express (PME) item does not meet the scheduled delivery commitment, online and commercial customers may submit a refund request by visiting USPS.com. Retail customers may submit a refund request either online at USPS.com or at retail locations. Refund requests for postage must be submitted no later than 30 days from the date of mailing. Extra Service fees refund requests must be submitted no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Each tracking number can only be submitted once for all applicable refunds. Refund requests for PME or PME with Extra Service must be combined into a single submission.

Thank you for choosing Priority Mail Express service.
